The 508 Balilla was a compact car designed and developed by Fiat in 1932. It was, effectively, the replacement of the Fiat 509, although production of the earlier model had ceased back in 1929. It had a three-speed transmission (increased to four in 1934), seated four, and had a top speed of about 50 mph (80 km/h). Listed below are all the adverts placed for FIATs within the modern car parts section on OCC, pulling together ads that have been placed on the existing specific FIAT model pages. To view any of these ads in full, or add your own advert, simply visit the relevant model page. On there you'll find all the ads for that particular model in greater detail, and also details on how to place your own ...
